Art Unit: 3617

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 13-17 and 20-24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Harsia et al. Harsia et al disclose the claimed structure and method of a system for providing furnishings in a watercraft with one or more room units 7 installed through an opening and that the room units are moved into predetermined positions on the deck construction so that the exterior side form a part of the outboard of the watercraft. Note also that the cabins can have walls, a side portion or balcony 10 may be separately attached (note column 4, line 62, for example).

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claim 18 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Harsia et al in view of Comm. Harsia et al does not specifically disclose seals. Comm teaches sealing strips 47, Figure 10. It would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to form the cabins of Harsia et al with sealing strips as taught by Comm to prevent water or debris from entering the structure between the cabins.

5. Claim 19 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Harsia et al in view of Klaus. Harsia et al does not disclose a separately installed floor. Klaus teaches a separately installed floor. It would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to form the cabin of Harsia et al with a separately installed floor as taught by Klaus for a major reduction in weight.

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Carranza-Aubry shows seals. Levander shows a ship. Hammond, Jr. shows a housing unit.
